Starting in 2018, the United States imposed tariffs of up to 25% on over USD 250 billion worth of Chinese goods, including electronics, machinery, and agricultural products. China responded by imposing retaliatory tariffs on US agricultural products, including soybeans.

As a result of the US tariffs, China had to import soybeans from Brazil instead of the US, at higher prices. Several Chinese manufacturers also began moving their factories to Vietnam and Mexico to avoid the US tariffs. In 2020, the COVID-19 pandemic further disrupted global trade, with Hong Kong's total trade declining by 2.5%.

(a) Identify the type of trade protection policy used by the US. Explain how this policy makes Chinese goods less competitive. (3 marks)

(b) Using the data in the case, explain how the trade conflict affects Chinese consumers. (3 marks)

(c) Apart from retaliatory tariffs, suggest TWO ways China could respond to protect its economic security. Explain each way briefly. (4 marks)

Section 5: Case Study 案例研究

 Case Scenario 案例情境

In October 2023, the third Belt and Road Forum for International Cooperation was held in Beijing. Over 150 countries participated. China highlighted the opening of the BRI infrastructure High-Speed Railway in Indonesia — the first HSR outside China built using Chinese technology — and announced that the China-Europe Railway Express had run over 77,000 trains connecting 217 cities across 25 countries.

However, Italy announced in December 2023 that it would withdraw from the BRI. Italian Prime Minister Meloni cited that the BRI had not brought significant economic benefits, with Italy running a trade deficit with China exceeding €40 billion. The US and NATO allies had also pressured Italy to distance itself from China.

(a) Using the case, explain TWO opportunities that the BRI has brought to China. Support your answer with specific data. (4 marks)

(b) Identify and explain ONE challenge to the BRI shown by Italy's withdrawal. (3 marks)

(c) Suggest TWO measures China could take to address the concerns of countries like Italy. (4 marks)

ANSWERS 答案 — All Question Sheets 1–6

Reference answers. In exams: use full sentences, cite data, use TPEC structure for long questions.

Sheet 1 — Trade Basics 貿易基礎

Q1. Fill in blanks:

- (1) Visible trade 有形貿易
- (2) Invisible trade 無形貿易
- (3) Re-export trade 轉口貿易
- (4) Specialised production 專門生產
- (5) Consumer choices 消費者選擇
- (6) Unemployment 失業 (labour unemployment crisis)

Q2. Matching:

- (i) Visible Trade → (C) Trade in physical/tangible goods
- (ii) Invisible Trade → (F) Trade in services e.g. banking
- (iii) Export Trade → (E) Selling goods/services TO other countries
- (iv) Import Trade → (B) Buying goods/services FROM other countries
- (v) Re-export Trade → (D) Re-selling imported goods to a third country
- (vi) Specialised Production → (A) Country produces at lowest cost, exports surplus

Q3. MC Q1 (Which are CORRECT?):

- Answer: A — ii and iii only
- Statement i is WRONG: Visible trade involves goods, not services
- Statement iv is WRONG: Specialised production means specialising, not producing everything

Q4. MC Q2 (HK famous for?):

- Answer: C — Re-export trade 轉口貿易

Q5. MC Q3 (Example of invisible trade?):

- Answer: B — ii only: A HK bank providing financial services to an overseas company is a SERVICE = invisible trade

Q6. MC Q4 (Specialised production advantage?):

- Answer: B — Increased production efficiency 生產效益: countries specialise in what they do best, producing at lowest cost

Q7. Short Q1 — Visible vs invisible trade:

- Visible trade 有形貿易: trade in physical goods, e.g. exporting cars/electronics from China
- Invisible trade 無形貿易: trade in services, e.g. HK bank providing financial services to overseas companies

Q8. Short Q2 — TWO advantages of world trade:

- ① Increases production efficiency 提高生產效益 — countries specialise in what they do best → goods produced at lower cost
- ② Increases consumer choices 增加消費者選擇 — people can access goods from around the world at competitive prices

Q9. Short Q3 — ONE challenge, group most affected:

- Unfair trade 不公平貿易 — economically weaker/developing countries have less bargaining power in trade negotiations; their interests are often overlooked

- Most affected: Workers 工人 in non-advantageous industries lose jobs when local industries cannot compete with cheaper imports

Q10. Case Study:

- Concept: Specialised production 專門生產 — each country produces goods it has comparative advantage in
- Country X specialises in rice (abundant farmland, warm climate) and exports surplus to Country Y
- Country Y specialises in electronics/machinery (advanced industry) and exports to Country X
- Both benefit: Country X gets technology it lacks; Country Y gets food it cannot grow cheaply. 'Each takes what it needs' 各取所需
- Challenge for Country X: Over-dependence on one export (rice) → if rice prices fall, economy suffers; industries that need technology remain underdeveloped

 Sheet 2 — External Trade: Mainland & HK 中港對外貿易

Q1. Fill in blanks:

- (1) CEPA 更緊密經貿關係安排
- (2) RCEP 區域全面經濟夥伴關係協定
- (3) Free Trade Zone 自由貿易區
- (4) Logistics 物流
- (5) Cargo throughput 貨物吞吐量
- (6) De-Chinaisation 去中國化
- (7) Supply chain 供應鏈

Q2. Matching:

- (i) CEPA → (D) 2003 agreement giving HK preferential access to Mainland
- (ii) RCEP → (F) World's largest free trade area signed in 2020 (15 countries)
- (iii) FTZ → (E) Specific areas inside China where goods enter/exit without tariffs
- (iv) HKIA → (C) Ranked No. 1 globally for cargo throughput in 2023
- (v) Greater Bay Area → (A) Region encompassing Guangdong, HK, and Macao
- (vi) De-Chinaisation → (B) Movement of foreign companies' production away from China

Q3. MC Q1 (China's export rank?):

- Answer: A — First (No. 1): China was the world's LARGEST merchandise trade exporter in 2023 (USD 3,379.04 billion)

Q4. MC Q2 (Challenges — which are CORRECT?):

- Answer: B — i, ii and iv only
- Statement iii is WRONG: CEPA is an OPPORTUNITY for HK (preferential access), not a challenge

Q5. MC Q3 (CEPA signed in which year?):

- Answer: C — 2003

Q6. MC Q4 (What is a Free Trade Zone?):

- Answer: B — A specific area where goods can enter and exit freely without tariffs

Q7. Short Q1 — TWO opportunities for HK:

- ① Expanding FTA network 擴大自貿協定網絡: HK has signed CEPA with Mainland (2003) and FTA with Australia (2019). This gives HK products preferential access to these markets, boosting exports
- ② Strengthening ties with Mainland 加強與內地聯繫: Mainland accounted for 49.2% of HK's trade in 2023. Through Greater Bay Area cooperation and Belt and Road, HK can access even larger markets

Q8. Short Q2 — COVID-19 challenge + data:

- Challenge: COVID-19 caused a significant slowdown in global trade 全球貿易大幅放緩
- Impact: Global supply chains were disrupted due to pandemic prevention measures, factory shutdowns, and transport delays
- Data: HK's total trade in goods declined by 2.5% in 2020; China's exports fell by 11.4% year-on-year in Q1 2020

Q9. Short Q3 — What is RCEP + opportunity:

- RCEP (Regional Comprehensive Economic Partnership 區域全面經濟夥伴關係協定) was signed in 2020 between 15 countries including China, ASEAN×10, Japan, South Korea, Australia, and New Zealand — the world's largest free trade area
- Opportunity for China: RCEP removes/reduces tariffs 關稅 among member states, allowing Chinese goods easier access to the markets of 15 countries. This expands China's export markets and strengthens trade partnerships in Asia-Pacific

Q10. Case Study:

- Challenge 1: Global political instability 全球政治不穩 — Russia-Ukraine War caused wheat prices to rise significantly, creating global food inflation and economic uncertainty for both China and HK
- Challenge 2: Trade protectionism 貿易保護主義 / De-Chinisation — US and EU countries imposed tariffs and restrictions on Chinese goods; companies relocated factories from China to Vietnam/Mexico, reducing China's export volume
- Measures: (1) Diversify export markets — expand FTA network beyond US/EU to ASEAN, Middle East, Africa; (2) Boost domestic demand 擴大內需 — reduce over-reliance on external trade by stimulating local consumption

 Sheet 3 — Trade Protection & Conflicts 貿易保護與衝突

Q1. Fill in blanks:

- (1) Export subsidies 出口補貼
- (2) Import duties 進口關稅 (tariff)
- (3) Import quota 進口配額
- (4) Embargo 禁運
- (5) Bilateral 雙邊
- (6) Multilateral 多邊
- (7) World Trade Organization (WTO) 世界貿易組織
- (8) Economic security 經濟安全

Q2. Matching:

- (i) Export Subsidies → (E) Cash grants or concessions given to exporters to lower their selling prices
- (ii) Import Duties → (B) Tax imposed on imported goods to raise their price
- (iii) Import Quota → (D) Limit on the quantity of goods that can be imported in a given period
- (iv) Import Restrictions → (C) Rules or standards (e.g. food safety, environment) that imported goods must meet
- (v) Embargo → (A) Complete ban on importing specific goods, often for political reasons

Q3. MC Q1 (NOT a form of trade protection?):

- Answer: C — Free Trade Agreement 自由貿易協定: FTAs REDUCE barriers and promote free trade — they are the OPPOSITE of trade protection

Q4. MC Q2 (WTO — which are CORRECT?):

- Answer: B — i, ii and iii only
- Statement iv is WRONG: WTO's headquarters is in Geneva, Switzerland 瑞士日內瓦, NOT New York

Q5. MC Q3 (India banned all toy imports from China — type?):

→ Answer: D — Embargo 禁運: a complete ban on importing specific goods from a country

Q6. MC Q4 (Impacts of trade conflicts — which are CORRECT?):

- Answer: A — i and iii only
- i is CORRECT: enterprises relocate production to lower-cost countries due to tariffs
- iii is CORRECT: trade conflicts undermine investor confidence → stock market declines
- ii is WRONG: consumer goods become MORE expensive (not cheaper)
- iv is WRONG: trade volume DECREASES, not increases

Q7. Short Q1 — import duty vs import quota:

- Import duty 進口關稅: a TAX imposed on imported goods → raises the price of imports → e.g. US imposed import tariff on Chinese goods in 2018
- Import quota 進口配額: a QUANTITATIVE limit on the amount of goods that can be imported in a period
- e.g. limiting steel imports to X tonnes per year

Q8. Short Q2 — TWO reasons for trade protection:

- ① Protecting local industries 保護本地工業: cheaper imported goods undercut local producers, causing them to lose market share and potentially close. Trade protection (e.g. import duties) raises import prices so consumers choose local goods instead
- ② Protecting employment 保護就業: if local industries fail due to competition, workers lose their jobs. Trade protection gives struggling industries time to adapt and remain competitive, preserving employment

Q9. Short Q3 — economic security + ONE way to safeguard:

- Economic security 經濟安全: a state where the country can eliminate and resolve potential risks, resist external economic shocks, and ensure continuous, rapid, and healthy economic development
- ONE way: Ensuring multilateral cooperation 確保多邊合作 — promote trade liberalisation and the WTO multilateral trading system; use multilateral negotiations to reduce trade barriers and safeguard China's trade interests

Q10. Case Study:

- Policy type: Import duties 進口關稅 (tariffs — a tax on imported goods)
- Impact on competitiveness: The import tariff means US buyers must pay 25% MORE for Chinese goods
- Chinese goods become less price-competitive vs goods from other countries → Chinese manufacturers lose market share in the US
- Impact on consumers: China had to import soybeans from Brazil instead of the US at higher prices → soybean and related food prices (tofu, cooking oil) rose in China → higher cost of living for Chinese consumers
- Two responses: (1) Negotiate through WTO multilateral channels, challenging the tariffs as violations of free trade principles; (2) Expand domestic demand 擴大內需 — reduce over-reliance on US exports by boosting domestic consumption and finding alternative markets (e.g. ASEAN, BRI countries)

 Sheet 4 — Political Structure & Constitution 政治架構與憲法

Q1. Fill in blanks:

- (1) Constitution 憲法
- (2) National People's Congress (NPC) 全國人民代表大會
- (3) NPC Standing Committee (NPCSC) 全國人大常委會
- (4) Administrative 行政
- (5) Central Military Commission (CMC) 中央軍事委員會
- (6) Anti-corruption 反腐 (clean governance 廉政)
- (7) Adjudicatory 審判
- (8) Head of state 國家元首

Q2. Matching:

- (i) NPC → (B) Highest state organ of power; has legislative, supervisory, and appointment powers
- (ii) President → (D) Head of state; manages foreign affairs; promulgates laws
- (iii) State Council → (E) Highest administrative organ; implements national economic and social plans
- (iv) CMC → (C) Highest military leadership; commands all armed forces
- (v) NCS → (F) Highest supervisory organ; conducts anti-corruption and clean governance work
- (vi) Supreme People's Procuratorate → (A) Highest procuratorial organ; investigates crimes and approves arrests

Q3. MC Q1 (Highest state organ of power?):

- Answer: B — The National People's Congress (NPC) 全國人民代表大會 is the highest state organ of power

Q4. MC Q2 (NPC — which are CORRECT?):

- Answer: B — i, ii and iii only
- Statement iv is WRONG: It is the National Commission of Supervision (NCS 國家監察委員會), not the NPC, that is responsible for investigating corruption cases

Q5. MC Q3 (President eligibility — which are CORRECT?):

- Answer: A — i and ii only
- Statement iii is WRONG: Must be aged 45+, not 35+
- Statement iv is WRONG: There is no constitutional requirement to be a CPC member (though in practice the President is always a CPC member)

Q6. MC Q4 (Anti-corruption institution?):

- Answer: C — National Commission of Supervision (NCS) 國家監察委員會: the highest supervisory organ responsible for anti-corruption and investigating duty-related violations

Q7. Short Q1 — FOUR NPC powers + example:

- ① Legislative power 立法權: amend the Constitution; enact criminal, civil, and basic laws — e.g. NPC voted to amend the Constitution in 2018
- ② Supervisory power 監督權: oversee enforcement of the Constitution
- ③ Power to decide on major issues 決定重大事項: approve the national economic and social development plan and state budget — e.g. NPC approved 2023 budget
- ④ Appointment and removal power 任免權: elect President/VP; approve Premier; elect CMC Chair — e.g. NPC elected Xi Jinping as President in March 2023

Q8. Short Q2 — NPC vs NPCSC relationship:

- The NPC Standing Committee (NPCSC 全國人大常委會) is the PERMANENT organ of the NPC
- When the NPC is not in session 閉幕期間 (which is most of the year), the NPCSC exercises the functions and powers granted by the Constitution and laws on behalf of the NPC
- The NPCSC is accountable to and reports to the NPC — it is a subordinate body, not an equal one

Q9. Short Q3 — State Council status + TWO powers:

- Status: Highest state administrative organ 最高國家行政機關; also called the Central People's Government 中央人民政府; Premier responsibility system 總理負責制
- Power 1: Formulate and implement administrative regulations 行政法規 to put national laws into practice
- Power 2: Manage national economic and social development — implement the five-year economic plan, manage education, health, and foreign affairs

Q10. Case Study:

- March 2023 annual session: (1) Appointment power 任免權 — NPC elected Xi Jinping as President and approved Li Qiang as Premier (nominated by President Xi); (2) Power to decide on major issues 決定重大事項 — NPC approved the 2023 national economic and social development plan and state budget
- NPCSC appointed Defence Minister: The NPCSC can exercise NPC powers when the NPC is not in session. Appointing ministers is part of the appointment power 任免權 granted to the NPCSC for filling vacancies between NPC sessions
- State Council's role: After the NPC approves the national economic plan, the State Council is responsible for IMPLEMENTING it — turning the plan into specific policies, regulations, and government actions across departments

Sheet 5 — CPC & Multiparty System 中共與多黨制度

Q1. Fill in blanks:

- (1) Governing party 執政黨
- (2) Participating parties 參政黨
- (3) CPC National Congress 全國代表大會
- (4) General Secretary 總書記
- (5) Political consultation 政治協商
- (6) Long-term coexistence 長期共存
- (7) Democratic supervision 民主監督
- (8) Patriotic united front 愛國統一戰線

Q2. Matching:

- (i) CPC → (C) Only governing party; supreme leadership of PRC
- (ii) Participating Parties → (F) 8 parties that cooperate with CPC in state affairs; NOT opposition parties
- (iii) CPPCC → (B) Organisational form of political consultation; patriotic united front organisation
- (iv) CPC National Congress → (E) Held every 5 years; highest CPC organ
- (v) General Secretary → (D) Highest leader of the CPC (Xi Jinping since 2012)
- (vi) Political consultation → (A) Consulting on basic policies BEFORE decisions are made — 1st CPPCC function

Q3. MC Q1 (Role of 8 participating parties?):

- Answer: B — They cooperate with the CPC in state affairs and represent different social groups (intellectuals, medical professionals, entrepreneurs etc.) — they are NOT opposition parties

Q4. MC Q2 (CPPCC — which are CORRECT?):

- Answer: B — i, ii and iv only
- Statement iii is WRONG: The CPPCC does NOT have the power to amend the Constitution — that is a power of the NPC

Q5. MC Q3 (Basic cooperation principle?):

- Answer: A — Long-term coexistence and mutual oversight: '長期共存、互相監督、肝膽相照、榮辱與共'

Q6. MC Q4 (CPPCC is best described as?):

- Answer: B — The organisational form of political consultation and a patriotic united front 愛國統一戰線

Q7. Short Q1 — CPC vs 8 participating parties:

- CPC 中國共產黨 = the only GOVERNING PARTY 執政黨: it holds state power, leads the NPC and government, and determines the country's fundamental policy direction
- The 8 other parties = PARTICIPATING PARTIES 參政黨: they participate in state affairs and political consultation under CPC leadership; they contribute professional expertise and represent different social groups; they are NOT opposition parties and do NOT compete for power

Q8. Short Q2 — THREE CPPCC functions + explain ONE:

- ① Political consultation 政治協商: CPPCC members are consulted on basic policies and important state issues BEFORE decisions are made and implemented
- ② Democratic supervision 民主監督: CPPCC supervises through suggestions and criticisms on the implementation of the Constitution, laws, and government policies
- ③ Participation in deliberation of state affairs 參政議政: CPPCC submits opinions via study reports 調研報告, proposals 提案, and recommendations to the CPC and state organs
- Explained: Political consultation 政治協商 — BEFORE the CPC finalises a major policy (e.g. poverty alleviation strategy), the CPPCC is consulted. CPPCC members can raise concerns, propose amendments, and contribute expertise, ensuring better decisions

Q9. Short Q3 — Multiparty system promotes development + example:

- The system allows participating parties to contribute their professional expertise to supplement CPC governance, making policies more effective and evidence-based
- Example: The Chinese Peasants and Workers Democratic Party 農工民主黨 — a medical-focused participating party — conducted research in Yunnan Province on poverty alleviation. They found illness-caused poverty was 24.4% (higher than the official 13.9%), leading the government to implement more targeted healthcare-focused poverty alleviation policies. This shows how participating parties improve governance through professional contribution

Q10. Case Study:

- Role: The Chinese Peasants and Workers Democratic Party is a PARTICIPATING PARTY 參政黨. It cooperates with the CPC in state affairs but does not hold governing power
- Participation in state affairs 參政議政 in practice: The party conducted independent research (a 'study report' 調研報告) in Yunnan, identifying a discrepancy in poverty data. They submitted their findings as a proposal 提案 to the CPPCC, which forwarded it to the CPC and State Council as a recommendation. The CPC incorporated this evidence into revised poverty alleviation policies — demonstrating how participating parties can influence state policy through proper channels
- Long-term coexistence: The case shows that the participating parties have cooperated alongside the CPC for decades (some since 1925–1948). Their continued existence alongside the CPC, contributing specialised knowledge in areas like medicine, education, and economics, demonstrates the 'long-term coexistence' principle — they are not rivals but long-term partners in national governance

 Sheet 6 — Foreign Policy & BRI 外交政策與一帶一路

Q1. Fill in blanks:

- (1) Zhou Enlai 周恩來
- (2) Non-interference 互不干涉內政
- (3) Mutual benefit 平等互利
- (4) Belt and Road Initiative 一帶一路
- (5) Silk Road Economic Belt 絲綢之路經濟帶
- (6) 21st Century Maritime Silk Road 21 世紀海上絲綢之路
- (7) Policy Coordination 政策溝通
- (8) People-to-people Bonds 民心相通

Q2. Matching:

- (i) Mutual respect for sovereignty → (D) Countries respect each other's territorial boundaries and independent governance
- (ii) Mutual non-aggression → (F) Countries do not militarily attack or threaten each other
- (iii) Non-interference → (C) Respecting each country's chosen political path; not meddling in internal affairs
- (iv) Equality and mutual benefit → (E) Agreements made on equal footing; both sides gain from relationship
- (v) Peaceful coexistence → (A) Living alongside other nations without conflict or war
- (vi) Community with shared future → (B) China's 21st century vision: mutual benefit for all humankind

Q3. MC Q1 (Proposed by whom, when?):

→ Answer: B — Premier Zhou Enlai 周恩來, 1953

Q4. MC Q2 (BRI — which are CORRECT?):

→ Answer: B — i, ii and iii only

→ Statement iv is WRONG: As of August 2023, 152 countries (NOT 220) signed cooperation agreements with China

Q5. MC Q3 (Italy withdrew — which reason?):

→ Answer: A — Italy felt the BRI brought no significant economic benefit and had a large trade deficit with China (exports to China: €16.4bn vs imports from China: €57.5bn; deficit >€40bn)

Q6. MC Q4 (Building railways = which focus?):

→ Answer: C — Facilities Connectivity 設施聯通: this key focus involves building physical infrastructure such as railways, highways, ports, and airports to improve transport links between BRI countries

Q7. Short Q1 — Name FIVE principles + explain ONE:

→ ① Mutual respect for sovereignty & territorial integrity 互相尊重主權和領土完整

→ ② Mutual non-aggression 互不侵犯

→ ③ Non-interference in internal affairs 互不干涉內政

→ ④ Equality and mutual benefit 平等互利

→ ⑤ Peaceful coexistence 和平共處

→ Explained: Non-interference 互不干涉內政 — no country should interfere in another's internal political affairs or domestic governance. Each country has the right to choose its own political system and development path without external pressure or interference

Q8. Short Q2 — BRI strengthens resource security:

→ China imports large amounts of oil and gas from the Middle East, which must be transported through the Strait of Malacca 馬六甲海峽 and Strait of Hormuz 霍爾木茲海峽 — both are narrow maritime chokepoints that could be blocked in a conflict

→ The BRI's Silk Road Economic Belt builds overland oil and gas pipelines that bypass these chokepoints, including: China-Russia oil/gas pipeline 中俄油氣管道, China-Central Asia gas pipeline 中亞天然氣管道, China-Myanmar oil/gas pipeline 中緬油氣管道

→ This reduces China's dependence on vulnerable sea routes and ensures more secure, diversified energy supply 能源安全

Q9. Short Q3 — TWO opportunities + ONE challenge:

→ Opportunity 1: Promotes economic development — 2023 trade with BRI countries reached RMB 19.5 trillion (46.6% of China's total trade); China-Europe Railway Express ran Jakarta-Bandung HSR (first HSR outside China, Oct 2023); China-Europe Railway: 77,000+ trains, 217 cities; Gulf of Aden: 45 batches, 35,000+ personnel, 7,200+ vessels

→ Opportunity 2: Strengthens foreign relations — 152 countries signed BRI cooperation agreements; BRI incorporated into UN Security Council resolutions and G20 documents, enhancing China's international standing

→ Challenge: Skepticism from Western countries — Italy withdrew in Dec 2023 (the only G7 member to have joined); Western nations view BRI with suspicion due to concerns about debt trap 債務陷阱 and Chinese political influence

Q10. Case Study:

→ TWO opportunities with data: (1) Promotes economic development 促進經濟發展 — Case mentions China-Europe Railway Express ran Jakarta-Bandung HSR (first HSR outside China, Oct 2023); China-Europe Railway: 77,000+ trains, 217 cities; Gulf of Aden: 45 batches, 35,000+ personnel, 7,200+ vessels, showing BRI has created major trade infrastructure benefiting member countries including connecting manufacturers to European markets faster and cheaper; (2) Facilities Connectivity 設施聯通 — BRI infrastructure HSR opened Oct 2023, the first high-speed railway outside China using Chinese standards, demonstrating China's technical expertise exports under BRI

→ Challenge of Italy's withdrawal: Lack of tangible economic benefits 缺乏實質經濟效益 — Italy's trade deficit with China exceeded €40bn; BRI membership did not significantly boost Italian exports to China. This shows BRI's benefits are not evenly distributed, and some developed economies do not feel they gain enough

→ Two measures to address concerns: (1) Increase transparency 提高透明度 — publish clearer data on the economic benefits BRI brings to member countries, addressing concerns about debt traps and unfair trade terms; (2) Promote more balanced trade 推動貿易平衡 — offer specific measures to help partner countries increase their exports to China, reducing trade deficits that lead to resentment and withdrawal
